

Boyce Baptist Cross-Currents

Church Newsletter For Week of August 14, 2022

Welcome to Volume 124 Of Our Newsletter! !

Greetings Boyce Baptist Family!

We are, as we have since the beginning of the Covid-19 pandemic, endeavoring to "stay connected". We are not sure (and likely never will be) of the source of the outbreak in our church since last Wednesday's Bible study. With so many possibilities, it resides in the arena of the Almighty's knowledge as to how it came to affect so many so swiftly. Fortunately, it appears to be an infection of one of the sub-variants that have been reported to be, although more contagious, less virulent than the original Covid-19 virus of several years ago.

As your pastor, I am so very grateful for the multiple expressions of your kindness and encouragement as I struggle through with what would have been, just over two years ago, a death sentence because of my "high-risk" issues. Thanking God for your prayers, phone calls, and even food drops! The medications my Dr. prescribed have been second only in efficacy to your petitions toward Heaven on Brenda's and my behalf. Brenda continues to be symptom free and still tests negative.

As you pray, please include the overall protection of our church family. Someone had just remarked two weeks ago that the devil was not going to allow the success of the Wednesday Bible study to go unchallenged. Truer words were never spoken. And isn't it interesting that we have only just begun a study on spiritual warfare!?

Have a blessed week!
Your pastor and friend,
Ben
